

Aina in the Schools – Waialae Elementary Charter School

Teaching our keiki sustainability is part of the learning curriculum at the Waialae Elementary Charter School. With a little help from our volunteers who worked the garden beds with new top soil; removed weeds and debris; and created picnic bench areas for outside classrooms; teachers and our keiki are now ready for Fall planting season! What will they grow?

