

Mali Land by Catholic Charities of Hawaii

Many helping hands of volunteers were raised high one beautiful Saturday morning as they painted, planted, cleaned, raked, washed, and got involved in preparing to welcome new families into these homes. A fresh coat of paint, new landscaping, and donations of household items, clothing, and school supplies will help our homeless families with young children move from the beaches to a safe place to live.

